

Expression Motorsport Introduces New Mercedes-Benz SLK Rear Bumper With Carbon Diffuser

Here's a quick note for those of you looking to add a touch of aftermarket styling to your Mercedes SLK. Expression Motorsport has just sent over a couple pictures showcasing their new rear bumper with integrated carbon diffuser for the model "one that looks slightly reminiscent of the rear diffuser found on the current SL63 AMG and SL65 AMG. It's available for both traditional SLK's as well as the AMG variant, and can therefore be paired with either the dual pipes or quad pipes your SLK is equipped with.
