

Love Chrome: Then You'll Love RENNtech's G-Class CDI Concept

{mosgoogle right}While we're on the subject of Mercedes G-Class tuning, RENNtech has unveiled new renderings showcasing a potential variant of the SUV that they're considering for future production. Details of the G Wagen are relatively limited, but the company says it's inspired by 30 years of G-Wagens and will feature a diesel powerplant (in addition to the various cosmetic enhancements you see above).
