

Performance Packages Offered For Select High Powered Mercedes AMG Models

{mosgoogle right}In an effort to further add to the dynamics and racetrack appeal of select AMG models, Mercedes has announced today the addition of new performance packages, available for the CLS 63 AMG, the SL 55 AMG, and the SLK 55 AMG. The packages, comprised of various factory-fitted components, focus particularly on chassis and brake system modifications and incorporate elements with an even higher performance rating and longer service life. The result (according to Mercedes AMG), is a breathtaking driving experience for ambitious sports car enthusiasts who want to have the option of using their AMG model on closed-circuit racetracks...
