{mosgoogle right}As you may have already heard, this week kicked off the always-popular SEMA Show in Las Vegas, Nevada, and with it a flood of new concept cars, custom show vehicles and of course, automotive blingery for virtually every car in existence. And while it's true I love a mid-80's Caprice rockin' insanely-huge dubs and quad scissor doors as much as the next guy, we decided to focus our attention once again solely on the Mercedes brand, scouting the show in an effort to bring you all the MB-related goodness we could find. The result? Photos, and lots of 'em.
