Infinite Miles To The Gallon:  The 2007 Mercedes-Benz Bike Collection

{mosgoogle right}If the Mercedes Vision C 220's 43 miles per gallon isn't enough to appease your eco-centric lifestyle, how does infinite miles to the gallon and the ability to meet EURO emission requirements until the end of eternity sound? Thanks to the 2007 Mercedes-Benz Bike Collection, this remarkable ultra-environmentally-friendly vision is now a reality. Unveiled today, the 2007 Mercedes Bike Collection offers the aforementioned polar ice cap saving features in three distinct flavors: 'Fitness,' 'Trekking,' or 'Racing.'  For the fitness line, select features include two versions ('Sport' for gents and 'Comfort' for ladies), an aluminum frame, a magnesium fork with a 80mm stroke, an adjustable handlebar, disk brakes and 24 gears with Shimano Alivio equipment.
