

Daimler Posts Group EBIT Of EUR 1.9 Billion In Third Quarter Of 2007

{mosgoogle right}For those of you with a vested financial interest in the newly-named Daimler, the company today has published its interim report on the third quarter of 2007. As a whole, Daimler managed to achieve EBIT of EUR 1,891 million in the third quarter of this year, up from the EUR 1,823 million achieved in third quarter 2006. This increase comes primarily as a result of the positive developments at Mercedes-Benz Cars, with the division raising its EBIT from EUR 850 million in the Q3 2006 to EUR 1,331 million in the third quarter of this year.
