One Millionth Mercedes Rolls Off The Assembly Line At Tuscaloosa, Alabama Plant

{mosgoogle right}The Mercedes-Benz plant in Tuscaloosa, Alabama noted a monumental achievement yesterday, with the one millionth vehicle rolling off its assembly line. The milestone vehicle a white M-Class 350 - came off the line on November 27 at 7:59 a.m. (Central Standard Time), and is set to be donated to an Alabama-based non-profit organization. According to Bill Taylor, plant manager of the Mercedes-Benz plant in Tuscaloosa since 1998: 'Our entire organization is extremely proud of this accomplishment and the global teamwork that has made it happen. Alabama has provided us with an excellent workforce and this state has been committed to the success of our business. Because of that commitment to our plant, we plan to donate this vehicle to a non-profit organization within the state.'
