Wald Debuts New Sports Line Package For The Mercedes CL-Class

{mosgoogle right}For those of you looking to for a way to flaunt your affinity for the classic television series 'Knight Rider,' the gentlemen of Wald recently alerted us to the fact they've just released a new tuning package for the Mercedes CL-Class - one David Hasselhoff would in all likelihood take great pleasure in toasting. Featuring an all black motif, Wald's CL boasts a vast assortment of aerodynamic enhancements, ranging from new side skirts; a new front and rear apron; a couple new spoilers; and of course, venting everywhere. Also available are your choice of large, equally dark wheels, the perfect compliment to a car Satan himself would be proud to pilot (if he wasn't too busy tempting 'The Hoff' to take just one more sip of those delicious distilled spirits).
