{mosgoogle right}If you have been looking to add a touch of dynamism and sportiness to your Mercedes SLK roadster, Mercedes has announced today the addition of a new sport package for the lovable little hard-top convertible, further adding to its already sporty appeal. Highlights of the new dynamatastic sport package include lowered sports suspension with 18" wheels, a more beefy braking system, an AMG breakaway edge at the rear end, red interior stitching and, as an added option, a new 7G-TRONIC Sport automatic transmission with steering wheel shift paddles. In models equipped V6 powerplants, a new air filter further adds to the sporty appeal of the SLK, producing an even more throaty sound as you frolic to-and-fro.
